January 2nd 2008 – Bournemouth, UK - Trade Price Conservatories today announces the launch of its new conservatory finance deals, available across its Synerjy range of DIY conservatories.

Launching today, the conservatory finance deals enable Trade Price's customers to order their conservatory and pay nothing for a year, interest free and with no deposit required. As an added bonus any customers wishing to pay outright for their conservatory are awarded the option of our 50:50 payment plan. Managing Director Karl commented "With finance now available for all conservatory purchases our customers really have the ability to be more flexible than we have previously allowed. Rather than have to pay outright for one of our conservatories, they can now spread the payments over a year and pay nothing extra, for complete piece of mind".
